

The Economic Impact and Benefit-Cost Analysis of Dohn Community High School

Economic Impact

Dohn's investments in capital and annual operations between fiscal years 2015 and 2019 had an economic impact of $54.9 million, an earnings impact of $21.4 million, and supported 545 jobs in the Cincinnati Metropolitan Statistical Area.

Fiscal Impact

Employees of Dohn contributed $570,207 in income tax revenue to state and local governments between fiscal years 2015 and 2019.

Benefits of High School Graduation

During the five years following graduation, Dohn graduates will generate $81.5 million in economic and fiscal benefits. The benefits of high school graduation include:

increased earnings for graduates,

increased income & sales tax revenue for state & local governments, and public assistance & incarceration cost savings for taxpayers.

Costs of High School Graduation

The economic and fiscal costs associated with high school graduation include the expenditures made by Dohn to educate students and the earnings foregone by students while in school. The total cost of earning a high school diploma for Dohn graduates between fiscal years 2015 and 2019 was $21.5 million.

Benefit-Cost Ratio

Every $1 spent on education at Dohn for the 1,507 graduates during fiscal years 2015 through 2019 leads to $3.79 in benefits to society during the five years following graduation.

